Finding Common Ground:

Learning to Work Together Today for a Brighter Tomorrow

Saturday, September 28, 2019

9:30 a.m.- 3:30 p.m.

Through engaging, hands-on activities, Girl Scout Cadettes will satisfy all requirements to earn their Finding Common Ground badges. Girls will tour the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Museum to learn about the role of compromise in a democratic society through the example of President and Mrs. Ford and will explore the debate over the Equal Rights Amendment. Girls will also have the opportunity to interview an elected official and apply their own mediation skills to make group decisions.

Limit: 35 participants

Registration Deadline: September 19, 2019

Fee: $12/Girl Scout $7/Adult (cost includes program, pizza lunch, and badge for girls)
(no refunds after September 20)

To register: email: cshubert@38foundation.org
